

Senior Privilege
Parent/Student/Administration Agreement
Class of _____

We the Senior Class of _____ have the privileges of signing out of study hall, but remaining on school grounds. In addition, we are not required to have a pass when in the hallways.

We the Senior Class of _____ have the privilege of signing out during our lunch period. Legitimate off school ground destinations for lunch sign out include:

1. Super Seven
2. Stewarts
3. NBT Bank of Sharon Springs

The senior class in return will provide the following:

1. Raise the flag during homeroom and lower it at the end of the day
2. Demonstrate good school and community citizenship as an example for other students. In addition, members of the senior class will “set a good example to younger students by following and reminding younger students of the school’s Code of Conduct.”
3. Maintain a passing average in all classes
4. Be on time for school and classes
5. Not take a senior skip day
6. Follow these other guidelines:
 - a. Not use automobile transportation when signed out and recognize that cars and the student parking area are not allowed during the school day without permission from the main office
 - b. Not store their books in their automobile and often request to go out to their car to retrieve them
 - c. Not go home
 - d. Not “hang out” on 2nd or 3rd floors or any other area of the building except for the 1st floor atrium area
 - e. Sign self in and out at the new main entrance and be on time for the next scheduled class, and
7. When signing out, write full name and the destination clearly (with no ditto marks) on the sign in/out sheet

We also recognize that:

- The Honor Society privilege of signing out of a 9th period study hall and going home is NOT a senior privilege
- The old gym, if it’s open will be an acceptable destination. However, all school rules still apply including the ban on electronic devices and hats.
- In addition, middle school students will have the clear priority on the basketball courts during their 5th period lunch.

One infraction while on senior privileges can result in the removal of privileges for that student for the remainder of the year. Other infractions of the Student Code of Conduct may result in temporary or permanent removal of senior privileges as determined by the Principal.
