

BUS MAINTENANCE

The maintenance of buses shall be accomplished through a preventative maintenance program and through immediate attention to all driver reported failures and visual checks of the vehicles.

1. Bus drivers shall complete and turn in to the head mechanic a "Bus Driver's Daily Report" on the bus operated each day.
2. The head mechanic shall check and service all items listed on the "One-Thousand Mile Inspection Report" and keep these reports as required by law.