

RESIGNATION OF A BOARD MEMBER

A Board of Education member resigning files the resignation with the district Superintendent of Schools, who, in turn, endorses an approval thereon and files same with the clerk of the school district. A school district officer may also resign at a district meeting.

Legal Reference: Section 2111